If you think something is wrong with this picture, you should see what’s happening in stores.

That’s where tobacco companies are spending billions on promotions where kids can see them. And the more kids see tobacco, the more likely they are to start smoking.

It’s time to draw the line.

Stores located near schools contain nearly 3X the amount of tobacco advertisements.

Take action now at SeenEnoughTobacco.org